Other than the occasional trip where we put in the tape cassette or CD, I didn't listen to audiobooks much while I was younger. I did read a ton however! As I got older and life got busier, my reading time went away. I was passionate about fiction and started listening to more audiobooks around 2016. I had always considered myself a writer by heart, but one that had difficulties getting the story done! Once my love for audiobooks grew, (Mainly due to Kate and Michael in the WOT and Brandon Sanderson series,) I knew it was something I wanted to do! I started performing audiobooks in 2017! Things were a little rough in the beginning, as I had a lot to learn! However, after 12 Published audiobooks and two more on the way, I am finally starting to feel comfortable and starting to get a following! I know I have a lot to learn yet, but also know that continued work and learning in the profession will get me where I want to be! It also helps to keep listening to the two best Narrators out there in Michael and Kate! Thank you for being the professionals you are, I hope to one day be able to perform with as much confidence and skill as you two project!
